TO: UF/IFAS Faculty
FROM: John M. Davis
SUBJECT: NEH Summer Stipend Awards

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) will accept nominations for its Summer Stipend awards beginning in May 2017. Summer Stipends provide $6,000 for two consecutive months of full-time research and writing.

Summer Stipends support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. Recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, or other scholarly resources.

Faculty members teaching full-time must be nominated by their institutions to apply for a Summer Stipend. UF may nominate TWO faculty members.

INTERNAL SUBMISSION PROCEDURES:

The following procedures will be followed for internal screening and selection of UF's two nominees:

- Internal preliminary applications, formatted as described below, should be submitted to the Associate Dean for Research Office of the PI's college for review latest by May 25, 2016. Colleges are asked to review and select their top three (3) submissions.
- Colleges should submit their top three (3) proposals to the UF Office of Research (Attn: Jeevan Jyot, limitedprograms@research.ufl.edu), by Wednesday, June 20, 2016.

A faculty committee will review the submissions and make selection recommendations to the VP for Research.

Internal applications will be evaluated according to the guidelines for the program as outlined on the NEH website (<http://www.neh.gov/grants/research/summer-stipends>).

Each application should be submitted as ONE PDF or MS Word format file and should include: a cover sheet (name, affiliation and title), project narrative, project bibliography, resume and appendix (if applicable).

Final nominated applications are due at NEH on September 29, 2016.
