

UF/IFAS Annual Report of Peer-reviewed Journal Articles – Confirming Peer-reviewed in UF Libraries Catalog

To determine if a specific journal is peer-reviewed, follow these steps:

1. Search:
 - a. From the Marston Science Library webpage <https://marston.uflib.ufl.edu/> select "Search the Catalog."

- b. In the search box, type the title of the journal and click the magnifying glass.

2. Results List: Matching journal titles will appear in a results list, sorted by relevance – best matches will appear at the beginning of the list.

In this example, both formats (print and online) of the journal are listed. When you click "available at" you will find that the print copy is available at two locations: FLARE and MARSTON SCIENCE LIBRARY.

3. Availability:

Click the link for "Available online" to see links to full text access and the date range of coverage provided by each resource.

Additional sources for confirming peer-reviewed:

- Ulrich's <http://ulrichsweb.serialssolutions.com/> Search for a journal and look for the referee icon
- Directly with the journal Web site – Check “About this journal” or “Guide for Authors” sections. The information may be difficult to determine.
